

I am writing to comment on your proposal to lessen the Indiana's telephone privacy act. I pay for my phone to use for MY own convenience. I do not have a phone to allow sales people to call me and invade my privacy. If I do not want to be called by someone I have that right. What reason would the FCC have to lessen our telephone privacy?